“Among so many excellent Institutions, it is hardly fair to single out one for special notice, but the work done at the Normal College for the Blind, Norwood, in developing the physical and mental powers of the inmates, and training them to occupations in which they can earn a living, seems to us exceptionally helpful. Its working expenses are only 6 per cent. on an expenditure of £10,700 a year.

“A good charity will always be supported, provided it is carried on with economy and courage.”

Report of the Executive Committee.

Vice-Patrons.

THE Executive Committee have great pleasure in beginning their Report with the announcement that their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, the Princess Christian, the Princess Henry of Battenberg, and the Landgraf of Hesse have graciously consented to become Vice-Patrons of the College.

President.

The Committee have the happiness of announcing that The Right Honourable Lord Howard De Walden has accepted the office of President, to which he has been unanimously and cordially elected by the General Council.

Vice-Presidents.

The Committee have to regret the loss of a Vice-President and tried friend of the College in the person of the late Archbishop of Canterbury, whose many services in the cause of promoting the higher education of the Blind are gratefully remembered.

The present Archbishops of Canterbury and York have kindly accepted the office of a Vice-President.

General
Summary.

In again presenting the Annual Report, the Committee deem it unnecessary, after the very full statements of the last two years, to enter into details as to the history and progress of the College, and the system of training and instruction pursued in it.

The work has been carried on during the past year upon the old lines, with unabated energy and undiminished success. We are thankful to have Dr. and Mrs. Campbell still spared to us, at the head of the Institution, devoting themselves to its interests and giving it the full benefit of their administrative ability and experience. Their services, and those of the entire Staff, have been as in former years all that could be desired.

The number of pupils during the year has been 157, on the average. The health of the School has been good, and the tone of the pupils generally satisfactory. Good progress has been made in the studies, and as a rule the pupils have been exemplary in their conduct. In two instances, it is true, the Committee have been under the painful necessity of exercising severe discipline—amounting in one case to expulsion from the College. This fact is mentioned here for the purpose of showing that character and conduct are deemed at the College to be no less important—to be even more important—than progress in studies.

For particulars as to the progress of the College during the year reference is made to the Principal's Report, which the Committee have pleasure in appending.

With regard to the Executive Committee, Mr. Miall, who for many years has been the Honorary Secretary, has retired from that post in consequence of the pressure of other engagements, but he still remains a member of the Committee. Mr. Van Duzer has kindly accepted the office of Honorary Secretary.

Hon.
Secretaries.

The Annual Meeting of the Subscribers and Donors was held last year on the 20th of March, at Stafford House, the use of which was kindly granted for the purpose by the Duke and Duchess of Sutherland. There was a very large attendance. The Earl of Aberdeen took the chair, and the meeting was addressed by His Excellency Mr. Choate, the United States Ambassador, by Canon Fleming, Lord Stalbridge, Canon Barker, Rev. H. J. R. Marston, and others. The choir from the College gave some vocal music.

Annual Meeting.

On the 22nd, 23rd, and 24th of April, 1902, a Conference on matters relating to the Blind, organized by the Gardner Trust, was held in London. Sir John Stirling-Maxwell, Vice-Chairman of our Executive Committee, presided at one of the meetings, and the College was also represented by the Principal and several members of the Staff.

Queen's Hall Concert.

On the 25th of April a Vocal and Instrumental Concert in behalf of the College was given in the Queen's Hall, Langham Place, under the patronage and in the presence of their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, and a large and enthusiastic audience. Her Royal Highness graciously received purses for the funds of the College, which resulted, along with the profits of the Concert, in a contribution of about £2,000. For this satisfactory result great credit is due to a Committee of Ladies, who for several weeks previously had exerted themselves with enthusiasm in making the arrangements known among their friends and in otherwise appealing for assistance. The Concert was conducted by Sir Hubert Parry, Principal of the Royal College of Music, and by Dr. W. H. Cummings, Principal of the Guildhall School of Music. The programme embraced solos, choruses, double choruses, one eight-part chorus, performances on the pianoforte, on two pianofortes, and on the organ, all by pupils of the College, with and without orchestral accompaniment. As to the performance, Sir Hubert Parry wrote to Dr. Campbell in these terms:—

“I congratulate you on the complete success of the concert; the perfect certainty with which everything was done, whether by the chorus, solo-singers, or instrumentalists, was quite wonderful, and it was not mere mechanical textual accuracy, but refined musical feeling which they displayed.” (See Appendix B.)

On the 17th of July there followed at the College the Annual Prize Festival, which was honoured with the presence of H.R.H. the Princess Henry of Battenberg, who, after visiting the class-rooms and grounds, graciously presented the prizes and diplomas, and otherwise testified deep interest in the Institution.*

* The College is always open to visitors on the first Thursday of every month, except January, August and September, at 3.15 p.m.

Garden parties were held at the College during June and July.

Although not strictly falling within the year now reported upon, it may be mentioned that a very successful Christmas Tree Festival was held on the 28th of January last, when the pupils had an evening's very pleasant entertainment. Dr. Cummings presided, and a number of friends were present. The Christmas tree was unveiled by the Hon. Mrs. George Lawson-Johnston.

Christmas
Tree
Festival.

We now turn to the Treasurer's department.

Finance.

A Statement of Accounts is appended to this Report. It will be observed that the expenditure during the year amounted to £12,494. The receipts were £11,702, of which £8,260 was from fees and subscriptions on account of pupils, £413 from Government grants for the School and the Training College, and £3,027 from subscriptions, donations and legacies. There has thus been a short-coming of income for the year of no less than £792.

This deficit is the more serious when it is remembered that it is shown after applying to the current wants of the College the whole of the exceptional contribution of £2,000 last year from Purses and Concert. In like manner, for the last three years, the Committee have been obliged to apply the whole of their receipts to current expenditure, instead of reserving legacies, as they could have wished, for the further reduction of the Mortgage on the College property.

Deficit.

The Committee made a special investigation last year into the financial position. After the fullest inquiry they were satisfied that no substantial curtailment of expenditure could be proposed which would not endanger the purpose of the College. That purpose necessitates a considerable expenditure. The distinctive aim being to give such education and training as will fit the pupils to become self-supporting, as piano-tuners, vocalists, pianists, organists, and teachers—an object which the College has attained in a measure beyond the most sanguine expectations of its founders—there is required a full staff of high-class teachers and costly appliances of various kinds. The Committee came therefore to the conclusion that the only way out of the financial difficulty was by obtaining a larger income, and they accordingly appealed for an additional amount of subscriptions of at least £2,000 a year. They have now very earnestly to repeat that appeal.

Appeal.

They would impress upon all friends of the College the necessity of making its merits more widely known, so as to obtain larger support for it in Donations and Annual Subscriptions. In their efforts on behalf of the College, the Committee confidently rely on the co-operation of those who are acquainted with the good work which the College has done and is still doing, which good work, however, can only be continued if a larger income is obtained.

Gardner Trust.

The Committee gratefully acknowledge, as in former years, the great aid they have received from the Gardner Trustees, whose Scholarships awarded to young blind persons of either sex in England and Wales are the means of admitting many to the school who otherwise could not have found access to it.

They have also to return thanks to Local Committees in different parts of the country, and to individual friends who pay the fees and board of certain pupils in whom they take a special interest. In no way can the College be more effectually assisted than by friends providing the fees of needy and approved pupils.

On behalf of the Executive Committee,

June, 1903.

JAS. ALEX. CAMPBELL,
Chairman.

Principal's Report.

THE average number of pupils during the year was 157, and the work and conduct as a whole has been satisfactory.

Pupils and Staff.

The College Staff, while performing the daily routine work with ability and faithfulness, have also devoted much time and energy to the improvement and development of their pupils out of school-hours. Our object is to inculcate habits of punctuality, order, and diligence, and to inspire the pupils to be earnest in all their aims. Again I have great pleasure in thanking the Staff for their untiring zeal and devotion.

The sudden death on April 11th, from heart failure, of Henry Cooper, who for twenty-three years had been connected with the College, was a great shock to all the inmates; his kind and cheerful disposition had won the esteem and affection of all with whom he was associated. The past and present pupils, assisted by the Staff, erected a stone to his memory.

Death of Henry
Cooper.

The Musical Recitals in Organ, Piano playing, and Singing of all grades of the pupils have been very beneficial. The Lectures and weekly Recitals of our Professors are not only of vital importance as a means of education, but a source of great pleasure to our pupils. The programmes of Mr. F. Hartvigson's Pianoforte Recitals, and Mr. H. L. Balfour's Organ Recitals will be found in Appendix D.

Recitals.

Mr. F. C. Corder, who has been Professor of Counterpoint, Composition, and Orchestration, was obliged, owing to increased duties, to tender his resignation in December, and his severance from the College is much regretted. Mr. Stewart Macpherson has been appointed to fill the vacancy.

Resignation

Report of H.M.
Inspectors.

In June the Elementary Department was examined by H.M. Inspectors, and the full grant was awarded. The following is the Report: "The instruction—planned on broad and intelligent lines—continues to be given with marked success, the patience and sympathy of the Teachers being reflected in the admirable discipline and keen interest of the children. The teaching in History and Literature was of a particularly stimulating character, and I cannot speak too highly of it. The great importance of Physical Training is realized to the full, and every provision made to render it efficient."

Dr. Manns'
Report.

The Musical Examination was conducted by Dr. August Manns, who says:—

The Examination began with the Juvenile Class called

"THE PRIMARIES."

This class, consisting of forty children, namely, eighteen girls and twenty boys from five to fourteen years of age, went, under the guidance of Mr. Alfred Eyre, through various simple Exercises of Musical Voice-Production and Voice-Training, consisting chiefly of:—

1. Sustained notes in unison on the "Normal Vowel-Sounds," to teach the children the control and "shaping" of the various Vowel-Sounds, and of
2. Rhythmical Melodic Phrases played on the piano by the Professor, and vocally reproduced by the children; an "Ear-test" practised with a view to sound development of their natural gift of reproducing correctly a melody immediately on hearing it.

The earnestness with which these young children attended to their task was delightful to witness; more particularly so when the Exercises of "sustained Monotones" were changed to the "Ear-test Practice of Rhythmical Melodic phrases." The hitherto serious little faces beamed at once with joy and happiness, and their somewhat timid little child-voices became animated with brightness and strength, a fact which would have given a healthful lesson to those advanced musicians of our day who—strange to record—now actually begin to complain of "too much Melody" when criticising compositions of serious or dramatic tendencies.

were sung by this same class as Part-Songs.

The leading features of merit of this juvenile effort were:—

- A. A pleasant quality of tone.
- B. Clear pronounciation of the text.
- C. Unwavering upholding of the musical pitch, all of which gave evidence of the artistic soundness and practical utility of the elementary vocal teaching referred to in the foregoing remarks. Miss Campbell and Mr. Alfred Eyre can be heartily congratulated on the happy result of their teaching.

II.

THE COLLEGE CHOIR.

This Choir consists now of about fifty Members, namely, Sopranos and Altos, Tenors and Basses.

They sang the following compositions:—

- A. A Four-part Song, "Ye Spotted Snakes."—By E. A. Macfarren.

- B. Madrigal for Female Voices, "The Nightingale."—Weelkes.
- C. Madrigal, "All creatures now are merry-minded."—Bennett.
- D. Waltz for Male Voices.—Vogel.
- E. Choral Ballad, "The Revenge."—Sir C. Villiers Stanford.

The principal features of merit of the singing of this Student-Choir consist of:—

1. A very even production of a pure and pleasant quality of tone ;
2. Clear enunciation of the words ;
3. Perfect intonation and unwavering retention of the Musical Pitch ;

all of which are more or less the mature fruit cultivated on the healthy artistic roots planted and nursed in the Juvenile Class of "The Primaries."

This highly satisfactory result of teaching on sound elementary Vocal-Principles commands special acknowledgment.

III.

Solo songs for Soprano and Bass were sung very impressively by pupils of Mr. Bouleott-Newth and Miss M. Severn, with evidence of sound and careful Vocal Training.

IV.

PIANOFORTE AND ORGAN.

No less than twenty-four Pianoforte students were examined in Solo and Ensemble playing in compositions by Bach, Chaminade, Cramer, Czerny, Hollins, Schubert, Liszt, Raff, Rubinstein, and others, with of course varying technical and artistic efficiency; but their playing was—with but few exceptions—distinguished by the production of a full and resonant tone of noble quality, and clear enunciation of the Melodies by means of that rhythmical accentuation which gives expressive speech to Instrumental Music. The method of teaching Pianoforte-playing at the Royal Normal College is evidently of a high standard of excellence, and reflects great credit not only on Mr. Frits Hartvigson, the head Pianoforte Professor, but upon all the assistant Teachers.

ORGAN.

Owing to want of time only one of Mr. Balfour's numerous students on the Organ was heard:—

THOMAS GREGORY.

His playing of a Concert Overture by Alfred Hollins (a former student of the Normal College, now the much-esteemed Organist at the St. George's Church in Edinburgh) was wonderfully impressive. His firm "grip" and solid technic reminded me of the playing of Monsieur Guilmant, the great Parisian Organist; such Organ-playing cannot fail to make friends wherever it may be heard.

FINALLY.—It gives me great pleasure to be able to say that, judging by the result of my examination on Friday the 5th of June, the teaching of Music at the Royal Normal College for the Blind is in every point as efficient as I have known it to be during the last twenty-five years. Thanks are due to all who have assisted in this great work.

Examinations.

In July four of our Students passed their Second Year's Government Examination for Teachers, and two, the King's Scholarship Examination. The following is the Inspeetor's Report: "The College is in good order. The Professional training deserves warm praise, and the general arrangements show much skill and forethought."

Two Students, Horace Watling (L.R.A.M.) and Thomas Gregory, passed the Associate Examination of the College of Organists. Eight Students passed their Examination and gained their Pianoforte-Tuning Certificates.

Mary Harootuneian.

Our supporters will be glad to learn that Mary Harootuneian, the blind Armenian girl sent to the College by Miss Shattuck, an American Missionary at Oorfa, to be trained as a teacher of the Blind, returned to her native country last October. The British and Foreign Bible Society gave her a complete copy of the Bible in Braille type, and twelve copies of the Gospel of St. John in Armenian (Moon's type), Miss Ailee Armitage presented her with a supply of school apparatus, and Miss Love provided a typewriter. When Mary reached Constantinople she was not allowed to remain with the lady who had taken charge of her, but was sent on alone to Smyrna. Later she sailed to Alexandretta, and travelled by carriage four days to Aintab. Here she was met by her friend and helper, Miss Shattuck, and they travelled under police escort to Oorfa, another four days' journey. We give the following extracts from Mary's letters:—

American Orphan Home,
Oorfa, Turkey.

November 26th, 1902

I thought you would like to know about my journey and voyage. Quarter to seven we left the steamer, and in Holland at the Custom House we were quite ready for something to eat. Passing through the plains of Germany, on Wednesday, at nine o'clock, we arrived in Vienna, accomplishing a journey of 1,000 miles. Next morning at eight we took the train, and facing Constantinople, we left beautiful England far behind us. Saturday morning we arrived in Constantinople. So far we had a very comfortable and pleasant journey. As Miss Salmond had some business to accomplish in Constantinople, we asked if I could not stay a few days with her; this was not allowed, so on the same day I sailed for Smyrna by myself. I spent a very pleasant time at the Girls' College there, and on the first of this month, joining with Miss Salmond, we sailed for Alexandretta. From here we had to depart from one another—Miss Salmond by caravan to Marash, a journey of four days, I, by carriage, go to Aintab, as many days as to Marash. When I arrived in Aintab I was charmed and delighted to see Miss Shattuck in the Girls' Seminary, partly waiting for me and partly because she had wished to visit Marash, where she was the Principal of the Girls' College ten years ago. On the 12th we left Aintab, and instead of going by caravan we were all riders. Miss Shattuck had asked the Government for a police escort, so we were quite safe to accomplish our final journey of four days to Oorfa. I had a big, black donkey. Three days we had a very cloudy sky, but not rain. Our fourth day was a pouring wet day; my poor donkey was as wet as could be. It was very hard for the poor animals. We were four: Miss Shattuck and her servant, his wife and myself; we did not grumble for these miserable conditions. We praised God for His blessing, for Oorfa people had been in great distress for being short of water and a great scarcity of wheat. At last at about three o'clock, in the frontiers of Oorfa, Miss Shattuck's people and her orphan boys met us. Miss Shattuck has rented a small room for my companion and myself near her Orphans' Home. Presently we shall have five girls; when the room and the school things are ready I shall start the work. We are anxiously praying and waiting for the Braille Bible and other things which have not come yet. A box of Bible portions has been sent to be examined by the Government at Constantinople; please also pray for this purpose.

January 15th, 1903.

Thank you very much for the beautiful 'Xmas card with the picture of the pupils. I am so delighted to have my boxes, for I thought they were never coming. We got them on the 12th of this month. On the 7th of December we opened the school for the Blind in a little room with seven girls; they are very happy to have this chance.

I have made out the Armenian alphabet and most of the contractions. Two girls can write, and the others are either trying to make nice dots or doing letters. Up to this time I used to teach with my frame in turns, but I am sure now the others have come the advancement will be doubled. They all have written to you one or two sentences in our letters. I shall translate them to you. The first girl, who has written on behalf of all, is a very promising pupil; she wrote them as I spelt out the words.

In the morning I am beginning with a story from the Bible, "The Creation of the World." Then on alternate days I take Geography, Arithmetic, Grammar, Sewing, and Knitting, and teaching hymns for the afternoon service on Sunday. I shall copy or make a spelling-book this Winter. I am preparing some nice stories to tell to the girls from the little books I copied out in England. Now I shall translate the girls' letters :—

“You do not know us, but we are sure you will like to hear about us. We are seven, and hope soon to be eight. Our oldest is twenty-eight, and our youngest is nine. I'm fourteen, and am blind since three years. One of us has lost her sight in the massacre, who is the youngest in the class. We are very happy in our little school-room. The school is very near to Miss Shattuck's. We are all very anxious to read and write. Some of us do like geography, some arithmetic, some of us sewing and knitting, but all of us do like best the singing. We are so glad that Miss Harootuneian has been able to learn the Braille at the College in England. We all thank you for the school things we got from you. Please pray for us that we may be able to get on both morally and mentally day by day.

“With much love, we remain, yours,

“OULMART, SERPOUHIE, FERIDE, KUDSTE,
“OVSANNA, ANNA, AND MAQKARER.”

P.S.—I am so glad to tell you that my typewriter and whole Braille Bible have arrived to us. First of all I have written “Praise ye the Lord, O my Soul, for all His Benefits.” I am going to read two chapters every day and three on Sundays, so finish the whole Bible in one year. We have made a very nice book-case for the Bible and for other books.

M. HAROOTUNEIAN.

Parliament and the Blind.

Parliament, in 1893, passed an Act providing for the Elementary Education of Blind and Deaf children. The promoters of the Act thought they were conferring a favour by extending the age for Elementary Education to sixteen : they did not realize that the School Authorities, for the sake of economy, would keep the blind children in day centres, as they are termed, until that age. The lack of suitable Playgrounds, Gymnasium, Manual Training, and Musical Instruction often prevents successful work in after life. At sixteen years of age it is too late to begin a course of musical training which will prepare the blind boy or girl for useful independence.

Secondary Education

I trust that while Secondary Education is being provided for the Seeing, as much, at least, will be done for the Blind. The Government should grant six years of Secondary Education for those who have good mental power and musical ability, and a thorough course of Technical Training for those who must afterwards depend on some handicraft; also Mechanical Training for those who become blind later in life. The United Kingdom stands almost alone in allowing the education of the Blind to depend upon charity. In most of the European countries, the United States, and the British Colonies, ample provision is made by the Government for the education and training of the Blind. The fact that their education has been left to charity, has helped to keep the Blind in the ranks of dependents. Unless you plead for them as the Indigent Blind, and draw a strong picture of their helplessness and misery, it is difficult to obtain funds for carrying on the work.

Pianoforte Tuning.*

Please note we send certificateed pianoforte tuners from the College to any part of the London Postal District, for tuning and repairing of pianos. Orders and inquiries addressed to the Manager, Pianoforte Tuning Department, Royal Normal College, Upper Norwood, S.E., will receive prompt attention.

The proof of the efficiency of the College tuners is that an ever increasing number of ladies and gentlemen, especially members of the musical profession, as well as manufacturers and music dealers, employ them, both in London and the Provinces.

Testimonials from those who are employing the College tuners will be found overleaf.

No tuner is granted a Certificate without serving an apprenticeship of several years, and undergoing a most thorough examination. A. J. Hipkins, Esq., one of the very greatest authorities on the piano, is Chief Examiner. For the examination the pupil not only tunes pianos for inspection, but is actually tested while at work; the manner of holding and managing the tuning hammer and damper, with the varieties of pianos, including overstrung instruments, being carefully noted. Each pupil is also required to demonstrate his

* Pianoforte Tuning as a profession for the Blind was introduced many years ago by Claude Montal, a blind pupil of the Paris School, and founder of the manufacturing house that bears his name. To him is due the scientific method of tuning now general both among the Seeing and the Blind. In France it is well known the Blind make the best tuners, and there they readily find employment on the same terms as the Seeing.

technical skill in making eyes, stringing, and ordinary light repairs, such as removing broken wrest pins, repairing hammer shanks, &c.*

Numbers of the College tuners are now successfully established at Liverpool, Leeds, Sheffield, Huddersfield, Hull, Bradford, Chester, Darlington, Sunderland, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Paisley, Dundee, Dumfries, Kilmarnock, Cardiff, and other towns. Residents in the above towns or neighbourhood desirous of employing our tuners will be furnished with their addresses upon application to the Manager of the Department.

The following Testimonials, selected from among the many received, testify to the thorough work of our Certificated Tuners.

ROYAL ACADEMY OF MUSIC, TENTERDEN STREET, HANOVER SQUARE, LONDON.

I have much pleasure in stating that I have been fully satisfied with the tuning of a grand pianoforte, belonging to this Institution, by a member of the Royal Normal College and Academy of Music for the Blind, Upper Norwood. The instrument in question has been tested by me, and I find it is in perfect tune; indeed, exceptional care has been bestowed upon it. I have therefore no hesitation at all in cordially recommending the tuners of the College to the public.

A. C. MACKENZIE.

45, BEDFORD GARDENS, CAMPDEN HILL, W.

I have great pleasure in expressing to you my entire satisfaction with the way my Broadwood grand was tuned by one of the tuners from your College.

With kind regards, believe me very truly,

G. HENSCHEL.

SYDCOTE, WEST DULWICH, S.E.

During the past ten years I have had my pianofortes tuned by certificated tuners from the Royal Normal College for the Blind, and am able to say that they have always given me the utmost satisfaction. I should be sorry to place my instruments under other hands.

WILLIAM H. CUMMINGS,
Principal, Guildhall School of Music.

* The perfunctory work of Blind pupils who merely linger two or three hours daily over a piano accomplishes very little towards fitting them for business. The pupil must be as diligent, energetic, and persevering as the seeing apprentice, and willing to give even more time for the necessary preparation.

Rules and Terms for the Admission of Pupils.

1. The College is open to the young blind of either sex from five years of age to twenty-one.

2. The annual charge for pupils sent by subscription or school authorities is as follows:—

Under 13	£35
Between 13 and 16	£45
Over 16	£60*

These terms do not include clothing or travelling expenses.

3. The terms for private pupils will be furnished by the Principal upon application.

4. The fees cover board, lodging, washing, and medical attendance. Payments in all cases must be made in advance, and are due October 1st, January 1st, and April 1st. The first and second payments are for three months each, and the third for four months. All cheques and Post Office Orders, in payment for pupils, should be sent to the Principal at the College.

5. Except in cases of severe illness, all pupils are expected to be in attendance at the College on the first day of each term.

6. Pupils will only be admitted at the beginning of one of the terms. If possible, they should enter at the beginning of the Michaelmas term.

7. As it is of the utmost importance to keep up home ties between pupils and their families, it is desirable that all pupils shall spend at least the summer vacation with their parents or friends.

* The Gardner Trust grants Scholarships, after examination, in aid of the young Blind of England and Wales, whose friends cannot pay the entire cost.

8. All pupils must be provided with strong clothes, either new or in perfect repair, as per the following lists, and their parents, friends or guardians will be required to renew the clothing when deemed necessary by the Committee. Pupils whose eyes are disfiguring will be required to wear glasses. The glasses should be obtained at the College.

9. The use of tobacco in all forms is strictly forbidden. All pupils, without regard to age, during their connection with the College, must abstain from the use of tobacco either on or off the College premises. The use of beer, wine, or any drink containing alcohol, is only allowed when ordered by the medical authorities of the College.

10. In all cases the following form must be filled up by a duly qualified medical practitioner. The questions are not, however, put with a view to exclusion, but for information regarding the pupils.

- (a) Is the applicant totally blind, or if only partially so, has he sufficient sight to enable him to follow any profitable employment?
- (b) What appears to have been the cause of blindness?
- (c) Has the applicant had small-pox? Has he been vaccinated, and is there satisfactory evidence that the infection was complete?
- (d) Has he had measles, whooping cough, or scarlet fever?
- (e) Has he been subject to epileptic fits?
- (f) Is he free from scrofula or cutaneous disease?

(Signed) _____

11. In cases in which the pupil is not entirely paid for by his or her friends, some reliable person must give a guarantee that the necessary clothing will be supplied; that the pupil will be removed from the College during vacations; and, in case of death, that the funeral expenses will be paid.

12. Parents or friends can visit the pupils on the first Wednesday in November, February, April, and June, between 2 and 5.30 p.m. If, for any special reason, parents wish to see their children at other times, they should write to the Principal for an appointment. As a rule, it is not expected that more than two friends will visit any pupil on the same afternoon. When visiting the College, parents are earnestly requested not to bring young children with them. Friends cannot visit the pupils on Sunday; this rule is strictly enforced. Parents are specially requested not to bring or send sweets or eatables to the children. If the children go out with their parents, they must not undertake commissions for other pupils.

N.B.—Applications and inquiries in regard to the admission of pupils should be addressed to the Principal, F. J. Campbell, Esq., LL.D., "Windermere," Church Road, Upper Norwood, S.E. Persons can see the Principal on business on Fridays from 11.30 to 1 p.m., and 4 to 6 p.m.; otherwise by appointment.

LIST OF CLOTHING.

FEMALE DEPARTMENT.

Stays and tight-fitting dresses are prohibited. Dresses and other clothing must give ample room across the chest. Dresses narrow across the chest invariably lead to bad positions. Parents are especially requested to attend to this requirement, as the health very much depends upon proper clothing. The skirts of the school dresses must be at least $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches from the ground, to allow freedom in walking.

- 1 Sunday dress.
- 2 Week-day dresses.
- 1 Gymnastic suit, which should be purchased at the College, and must be renewed when necessary.
- 1 White petticoat.
- 2 Coloured petticoats.
- 2 Flannel petticoats.
- 3 Undervests (flannel or merino, high-necked and long-sleeved).
- 3 Chemises.
- 3 Bodices (supplied with buttons for supporting the skirts).
- 4 Pairs of drawers.
- 3 Nightgowns.
- 1 Flannel dressing gown.
- 12 Towels.
- 8 Pocket-handkerchiefs (at least).
- 6 Aprons or Pinafores.

- 1 Small-toothed comb.
- 1 Nail brush
- 1 Tooth brush.
- 2 Small bags for combs and brush.
- 2 Bags for soiled linen.

N.B.—The gymnastic outfit is indispensable, and should be obtained at the College, as it is important to have all the suits alike. If the clothing and gymnastic outfit are not provided, it will be the duty of the Principal to suspend the pupil. If Parents will furnish 15s. for the first year, and 10s. each succeeding year, the pupil will be kept fully supplied with all that is required for the Physical Department.

MALE DEPARTMENT.

 - 2 Very strong week-day suits.
- Coats and vests must be broad across the chest, to give the lungs full play.
- 3 Shirts.
 - 3 Night shirts.
 - 6 Collars (at least).
- The bands of shirts and collars are often too small: this is a fatal error, as it not only injures the health, but prevents all chance of progress in singing.
- 6 Pocket-handkerchiefs (at least).
 - 4 Pairs dark worsted stockings or socks.
 - 1 Warm coat or cloak.
 - 1 Stiff black felt hat for Sunday.
 - 2 College caps (furnished at the College at 1/6 each).
 - 2 Pairs of gloves (1 pair of plain dark woollen material or woollen-lined for winter use, and 1 pair of dark-coloured dog-skin gloves for the summer).

1 Pair of Sunday boots.

2 Pairs of very strong boots for week-day use (without hob-nails).

(Parents are requested to exercise special care in regard to the size of the boots. They are often too small.)

1 pair of leather-soled slippers, with low heels (furnished at the College at lowest wholesale rates).

Gymnastic shoes (black), jerseys (dark navy blue, with 2-inch collar), cap and belt (furnished at the College at the lowest wholesale rates).

2 Woollen vests.

2 Pairs woollen drawers.

Comb and hair brush.

Small-toothed comb.

2 Small bags for comb and brush.

1 Tooth Brush.

1 Bag for soiled linen.

The rule in regard to the supply of clothing is imperative.

N.B.—The gymnastic outfit is indispensable, and should be obtained at the College, as it is important to have all the suits alike. If the clothing and gymnastic outfit are not provided, it will be the duty of the Principal to suspend the pupil. If parents will furnish 15s. for the first year, and 10s. each succeeding year, the pupil will be kept fully supplied with all that is required for the Physical Department.

APPENDIX C.

Prize Festival, July 17, 1902.

Princess Henry of Battenberg demonstrated her sympathy for the blind and her practical interest in the Royal Normal College for the Blind at Upper Norwood by visiting the Institution and distributing the prizes at the annual Prize Festival. The Princess, who was attended by Colonel Colborne and Miss Bulteel, reached the College about three o'clock, and spent quite three hours in going over the charming grounds, witnessing the demonstrations and listening to the singing of the pupils, in taking tea with the company, amongst whom she moved freely, and in graciously distributing the awards to the successful students. Her Royal Highness was evidently much interested and impressed by all she saw. The College was established as a school, a training college, and a conservatory of music, which should afford the blind of the United Kingdom an education, moral, physical, mental, technical, and musical, fully equal to that given in the best educational establishments for the seeing, and how well those objects have been kept in view was exemplified by the proceedings. From the first the founders of the College maintained that the blind could only be made self-sustaining by increasing their intelligence, bodily activity, and dexterity, by inculcating business habits, by arousing their self-respect, and by creating in their minds a belief in the possibility of future self-maintenance. Marvellous aptitude in various crafts, in singing and music generally, and moreover in physical training, was shown, and the Princess more than once expressed her astonishment and pleasure with what was shown her. She also graciously spent half-an-hour in the concert-room listening to the charming singing and playing of the pupils, who at the close of the programme sang "God Save the King." Her Royal Highness was received by the Earl of Aberdeen, Vice-President, the Rt. Hon. J. A. Campbell, M.P., Sir John Stirling Maxwell, M.P., Mr. F. C. Van Duzer, and Mr. D. C. Haldeman, members of the Executive Committee, Dr. F. J. Campbell, Principal, Miss Mundella, and Mrs. Westlake. There was a large and gaily-dressed company, and most of the demonstrations by the pupils took place in various parts of the extensive grounds. At the conclusion of the concert her Royal Highness was presented with a handsome basket of roses by the youngest pupil. The company then adjourned to a gaily-decorated balcony overlooking the terraces, which were crowded, where the prizes were distributed. The Earl of Aberdeen thanked the Princess for the kindly sympathy and interest she had displayed. They felt this mark of her gracious kindness not the less, but more, because already during the year their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales had honoured the College by attending the notable concert which was held in its behalf at the Queen's Hall. He congratulated the prize-winners upon their success. Mr. James Campbell, M.P., moved a hearty vote of thanks to the Princess for her gracious presence, and for the kindly interest she had shown in the inmates and the Institution generally, and the proposal was carried by acclamation. A vote of thanks to the Earl of Aberdeen for presiding concluded the proceedings.
